Opening Discussions/New Business

President Eady invited Therese Quinn to give a report on the FSGA Florida Cup. This tournament is played every two years. South Florida won the first 5 years. North Florida won in 2023 and 2025. 2025 North Florida had a clean sweep of fourball for the first time. Six of the players were from JWGA: Tian Jones, Shauna Snyder, Tama Caldabaugh, Lori Collins, Chris Hunt and Therese Quinn. They were all awarded the winning team photo.. Therese Quinn encouraged everyone to improve their game so that they could participate in this great opportunity to compete outside Jacksonville area.

Jody Clark and Suzi Rountree were presented with the Sarah Shelley trophy.

Volunteers for Nominating Committee for 2026-2027 Officers were solicited from the floor. Past President Vicki Galpin is Chair. Other members of the committee: Shan Giordano, Athena Ballas, Kay Buirge and Eve Goeddel.

Safe Animal Shelter of Clay County– Charity. December 17 was last day for donations. Terri Wensell collected the donations to be presented to SAFE shelter.

Question re Sarah Shelley Tournament: A question was raised as to why JWGA members are unable to have lunch at the Ponte Vedra Inn and Club. Pres Eady advised that there had been an incident approximately four or five years ago involving some members forgetting to pay their bill. The procedure at the time was to take the bill and pay in the Pro Shop. Eady said that she covered the outstanding bills and was repaid but was advised that the privilege had been revoked. According to some PVIC members, the current policy is Members Only.

A suggestion was made to select a location for the final round of the Sarah Shelley where members could have lunch and celebrate the winners of the tournament. This will be implemented next year.

Meeting was adjourned at 2:50.
